

NORTH NORFOLK MACMILLAN CANCER SUPPORT

If you are living with or beyond cancer, you are welcome to come along to our support group to meet others who have had similar experiences. Friends, family and carers are welcome to attend to accompany individuals and seek support themselves.

Cancer can be overwhelming. We provide a safe, friendly, and confidential space where you can talk about how you are feeling.

Sessions for 2022 (last Friday of the month):

Friday 30th September 10am-12pm

(Macmillan Coffee Morning – All welcome)

Friday 28th October 10am-12pm (please register to attend)

Friday 25th November 10am-12pm (please register to attend)

The group is held in the Northway Room of the North Norfolk Macmillan Centre at Cromer and District Hospital, NR27 0BQ

If you would like to attend please contact the Support Centre to confirm your place on 01603 641559 or email us at
